I AM not the MEdia, Inc.

Our mission is to empower teens and young adults to become conscious viewers of the media, critical decision makers, and to embrace their individuality and uniqueness through media literacy and media creation.

I AM not the Media, Inc. is a 501c3 nonprofit organization that teaches media literacy and media creation through outreach programming. Since incorporation in May 2011, the organization has served over 8,000 teens and young adults in North Carolina and South Carolina. The outreach program curriculum serves as preventative education and has six focuses that are known as our Program Channels, which are identified through research as the areas where teens are highly influenced by the media. Our five Program Channels are: 1) Body Image & Stereotypes 2) Teens & Healthy Relationships 3) Bullying & Teen Violence 4) Social Media Health & Safety 5) Teens as Consumers. The outreach program curriculum is comprised of 15 workshops that can be requested by teen groups and organizations.
